Dear Senator Brady,

I am in receipt of your insulting letter of November 28th in which you request a campaign contribution of $5,000 for your next campaign for Governor of Illinois.

You recently had an opportunity to stand up for traditional family values by opposing Senator Christine Radogno, a pro-abortion, pro-gay rights activist as the leader of the Illinois State Senate Republican Caucus.

You failed to do so.

The Illinois pro-family movement forms the very grassroots base of political support for you and most of your Senate Republican Colleagues.

As Family-Pac indicated to you and other Republican Senators in our letter of November 5, 2008, we find the selection of Senator Radogno as Senate Republican Minority Leader unacceptable to the pro-life/pro-family leadership of Illinois.

We still do.

Your equivocation and lack of moral courage in failing to oppose Radogno for this important leadership position, in our estimation, disqualifies you as a serious candidate for Governor in 2010.

Please remove me and Family-Pac from your contribution list and refrain from calling my office in the future.

Sincerely,

Paul Caprio
Director
Family-Pac
